How it works:

First Minute--Choose a table. Look at the books on the stack and figure out if it's a table you're interested in.

Second Minute--Look at the books on your table. Look at the covers, the type of font, read the blurb on the back.

Minutes 3-5--Start reading a book that caught your attention.

Minute 5--Figure out if the book is something you like. If it is, you'll take it to the next table and decide if you'll keep the book you picked or if another one looks better.
